$97.00 per person

Lewis and Clark were once a successful vaudevillian comedy duo known as The Sunshine Boys. During the later years of their 43-year run, animosity between the partners grew to the point where they ceased to speak with each other. Willie Clark, now an old man struggling with memory loss, reluctantly accepts an offer from a talent agent, to reunite with Al Lewis for one more show. Thanks to the urging of Al's daughter, the two decide to go through with the performance. One of Neil Simon's most beloved comedies will find you reminiscing with the old friends as they try to recapture their glory days and, perhaps, rebuild their troublesome friendship.
