TRIP DETAILS:

Wednesday, August 29, 2012 – Niles or South Bend/Chicago O’Hare - Board motor coach in Niles and South Bend bound for Chicago O’Hare where you will board your overnight flight for Ireland. Dinner is served in flight.

Thursday, August 30, 2012-Dublin - Upon arrival in Dublin you will be transferred to your hotel. You’ll have the afternoon at leisure. Tonight you will enjoy a welcome dinner (included) at your hotel.

Friday, August 31, 2012 - Dublin – After breakfast you will join your guide for a walking tour of Dublin. You’ll see City Hall, Dublin Castle, Christ Church Cathedral and St Audoen’s Church before moving on through the 17th-18th century Huguenot area. Here, a modern apartment building features scenes from Gulliver’s Travels. Stop for a photo opportunity of St. Patrick’s Cathedral, then visit a beautiful park paid for by the famous Guinness family. The walk will then take you past the deanery; a police station housed in a one-time medieval archbishop’s palace and Marsh’s Library, Ireland’s first public library (and believed to be haunted!). Enjoy lunch and the afternoon on your own. Dinner will be in an 18th-century restaurant (included).

Saturday, September 1, 2012 –Dublin - GAME DAY!!!
After breakfast you’ll be transferred to Aviva Stadium for the Notre Dame vs. Navy game. Enjoy the game!!! A boxed lunch is included for the day. After the game you will be transferred back to your hotel. Dinner is on your own.

Sunday, September 2, 2012 – Dublin/Wexford – After breakfast you’ll set out through the Wicklow Mountains to Glendalough, the Valley of the Two Lakes. Discover its early monastic ruins, including the famous Round Tower, which stands 108 feet tall! Find St. Kevin’s Cross, and if you can fit your arms around it you will receive “the luck of the Irish.” Lunch is on your own. Continue to historic Wexford, set on the River Slaney. Dinner tonight is at your hotel (included).

Monday, September 3, 2012- Wexford/Hook Peninsula/Waterford – After breakfast you’ll head out to dramatic Hook Peninsula. Visit Hook Lighthouse, built in the 13th century (perhaps earlier) and one of the oldest active lighthouses in the world. On a guided tour, hear the legend of Dubhan, a 6th century monk who established the first light on Hook Head after discovering the bodies of shipwrecked sailors on the rocks. Climb the 115 steps to the top level, passing through a series of chambers and enjoy the fascinating story of the lighthouse and the monks, the earliest keepers of the light. After a visit at Waterford, you’ll return to Wexford, where your afternoon is free. Lunch and dinner on your own.

Tuesday, September 4, 2012- Wexford/Cobh/Killarney – After breakfast your first stop this morning is the Heritage Centre in Cobh. This is the place that most emigrants departed from when they set sail to America. The “Queenstown Story” is a fine exhibition of the history of these departures. Queenstown, as Cobh was once called, was also the Titanic’s last port of call before she sank on her maiden voyage. Next is the Blarney Castle. Climb the 108 steps to the top, and then hang upside-down to kiss the famous stone and get the “gift of the gab.” Continue to Killarney, a charming Irish town renowned for its scenic beauty. Lunch is on your own, dinner is included at your hotel.

Wednesday, September 5, 2012 - Killarney – After breakfast, start the day with a ride on a traditional jaunting car, or horse drawn cart. Hear local legends and folklore as you clip along Killarney’s lakes to Ross Castle, set on the shores of Lough Lean, the Lower Lake. Afterward, visit the Kissane Sheep Farm, a traditional, working sheep farm with approximately 1,000 mountain sheep and hundreds of lambs. Watch out for the “Leprechaun Crossing” on your journey back to Killarney. Lunch and Dinner on your own.

Thursday, September 6, 2012- Killarney/Dublin – After breakfast, your first stop is at the Old Middleton Distillery, home of Jameson Irish Whiskey. See the Distillers cottage, giant waterwheel and the largest pot still in the world. Visit the Old Cooperage, and then complete the experience in the best way possible, with a whiskey tasting in the Jameson Bar. Return to Dublin and savor a Farewell Dinner with wine at the Pig’s Ear, set overlooking Trinity College. Lunch on your own.

Friday, September 7, 2012- Dublin/Chicago O’Hare/ South Bend/Niles - After breakfast you’ll be transferred to the airport for your return flight home. You will arrive back at Chicago O’Hare the same day where you will board your motor coach for the return trip to South Bend or Niles.

CRUISE OPTION – Friday, September 7, 2012 – 12-Night Icelandic Adventure Cruise– Dublin/At Sea – After breakfast, you’ll be transported to your ship where you can board and have the balance of day to relax. Depart Dublin at 6 pm.

Saturday, September 8, 2012 – At Sea – Cruising the Irish Sea and the North Atlantic Ocean – Pamper yourself at the Crystal Spa, shop in luxury boutiques, or simply relax by the pool. The day is yours!

Sunday, September 9, 2012 – At Sea – Cruising the North Atlantic Ocean – Teach yourself something new with complimentary language lessons by Berlitz, attend a lecture to learn art, history, and worldly destinations, or design your day as you wish!

Monday, September 10, 2012 – Akureyri, Iceland (8 am – 5 pm) – Iceland’s 2nd largest city sits on one of the most magnificent fjords in the country. Even though you are only 60 miles from the Arctic Circle, Akureyri is quite moderate – visit the Botanical Gardens with over 2,000 species of plants that thrive without a greenhouse, stroll past exquisite period houses, or take in a historical museum.

Tuesday, September 11, 2012 – Reykjavik, Iceland (1 pm – overnight) – Iceland is a land of volcanoes, hot springs, mountains, glaciers and northern lights. Reykjavik, the capital of Iceland, reflects this natural diversity with ancient maritime history as well as a thriving modern energy and sophistication.

Wednesday, September 12, 2012 – Reykjavik, Iceland (departs 5 pm) – Enjoy another day exploring the city of Reykjavik!

Thursday, September 13, 2012 –Sunday, September 16, 2012 – At Sea – Cruising the North Atlantic Ocean – Take advantage of the many ship-board activities or simply relax! Enjoy a wine-makers dinner, a lavish Broadway style production, dance the night away or take a chance in the Crystal Casino.

Monday, September 17, 2012 – Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada (8 am – 5 pm) – You'll be welcomed to Halifax, the capital of Nova Scotia, by bagpipers and the Town Crier. Take in the sights of Halifax's architectural blend of old and new. Shop the tempting array of colorful Scottish tartans, hand-knit woolens and pewter.

Tuesday, September 18, 2012 – At Sea – Cruising North Atlantic – Enjoy your last full day at sea!

Wednesday, September 19, 2012 – New York City, New York, USA (8 am) – Welcome back to the USA!! Disembark and transfer to the airport for your flight home, either directly into South Bend or via Chicago O'Hare and motor coach.
